

Q: Can I take my student home from football games and competitions or do they have to ride the bus?

A: Yes you can, you MUST text Mr. Dunlop if you are taking your student home. Your student MUST also tell their section leader or captain (Colorguard) as well. If you take your student between performances at a competition please remember that they will begin warm-ups up to 2 hours prior to the finals performance time. You may not take anyone student other than your own home without a written note (text will not be sufficient) to Mr. Dunlop prior to the event.

Q: When the pep band performs at football games does the Colorguard have to attend as well?

A: The Colorguard is only required to attend football games if the Marching Band performs their show during half time (usually 2 games per year).
